

Northwest Indian Fisheries Commission

6730 Martin Way E., Olympia, Washington 98516-5540

Phone (360) 438-1180

www.nwifc.org

FAX # 753-8659

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

Position: Habitat Policy Analyst II

Salary: $69,107 - $97,109 DOQ

Location: Northwest Indian Fisheries Commission
Olympia, Washington

Closing date: July 6, 2018

Duties and Responsibilities: Provide policy analysis, support and coordination on emerging habitat issues for Commission and member tribes to advance habitat protection and restoration objectives necessary to the protection of tribal treaty rights and resources. Analyze, advise and support development of habitat protection approaches to address treaty-resource issues. Assist in the implementation and advancement of the tribal habitat strategy designed to address tribal issues and priorities. Evaluate and provide written analysis on specific issues, processes and state and federal rule-making. Coordinate tribal input, provide analysis and response options on existing and emerging issues important to the protection and recovery of tribal rights and resources. Organize and facilitate tribal meetings as necessary to enhance and maintain inter-tribal communication, strategy discussions, data sharing and generalized program processes. Provide issue status reports to the NWIFC Environmental Policy Committee and the board of commissioners on a routine basis.

Qualifications: Master degree in environmental science, public administration, legal or related field and seven years of pertinent work experience, at least two of which must be doing policy analyst work OR Bachelor degree in environmental science, public administration, legal or related field and eight years of pertinent work experience, at least two of which must be doing policy analyst work. Knowledge of federal, state and local environmental protection statutes and authorities is required. Experience in tribal government relations is highly desirable. Exceptional written and oral communication skills, as well as interpersonal skills. A legal background in natural resources and treaty rights is strongly desired. An understanding of anadromous fish biology and habitat needs is desirable.

Application: Send resume and cover letter by July 6, 2018 to: Wendy Bowman, HR, Northwest Indian Fisheries Commission, 6730 Martin Way East Olympia, WA 98516-5540 or email to: wbowman@nwifc.org. For more information about this vacancy, please contact Fran Wilshusen at (360) 438-1180.

The Northwest Indian Fisheries Commission operates under PL 93-638 contract; Indian Preference is an employment policy. Must be authorized to work in the U.S. The NWIFC will not sponsor applicants for work visas.